

Extension of the Validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards

By decision of the Minister of Migration and Asylum, and taking into consideration the need to prevent phenomena of overcrowding and for public health protection reasons, the validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards is extended as follows:

1. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "1" is extended until November 6th, 2020.
2. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "2" is extended until November 13th, 2020.
3. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "3" is extended until November 20th, 2020.
4. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "4" is extended until November 27th, 2020.
5. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "5" is extended until December 4th, 2020.
6. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "6" is extended until December 11th, 2020.
7. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "7" is extended until December 18th, 2020.
8. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "8" is extended until December 29th, 2020.
9. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "9" is extended until January 7th, 2021.
10. The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards that correspond to case numbers ending in number "10" is extended until January 14th, 2021.

The validity of the International Protection Applicants' Cards, for the renewal of which the competent office is the Regional Asylum Office of Lesbos, is extended until January 14th, 2021.

For the convenience of the international protection applicants and the protection of public health, the cards will only be renewed in specific times and dates, which the applicants can find in an application available in the applications' website of the Ministry:

<http://applications.migration.gov.gr>.

The international protection applicants are kindly asked to present themselves to the Asylum Service according to the scheduled appointment, as assigned to them through the above-mentioned application.